

SimplyHelp Changing Lives, One Heart At A Time...

Become a United Nations Ambassador!

The SimplyHelp Foundation invites people age 18-35 to apply for the position of SimplyHelp Ambassador to the United Nations for the annual NGO DPI Conference of the United Nations.

This year's conference is entitled "Advance Global Health: Achieve the Millenium Development Goals".

The conference will take place from August 30th till September 1st of 2010. We will be selecting (2) ambassadors for this event. Ambassadors will be part of the SimplyHelp presence in Melbourne, Australia for the duration of the conference and will have the unique opportunity of attending the largest annual United Nations conference for non-profit organizations.

The SimplyHelp Foundation will also host a workshop at the conference and the SimplyHelp Ambassadors will have the opportunity to assist at the SimplyHelp workshop.

Applicants Must Meet the Following Criteria:

1. You are a student who 18 or older in age (no older than 35 years of age)
2. You have an active interest in Global Health

Applicants Must Submit the Following To be Considered:

1. A 2 page essay explaining why you are interested in this event and why you are a good candidate.
2. A current resume
3. Emergency Contact Information

Please submit it before July 15th to info@simplyhelp.org.

Selected candidates will need to cover their own travel, lodging and food costs.*